

What a season it has been. Giving and getting, family and friends, loving and longing for that perfect gift. That gift, born in a manger, died on a cross, rose victorious, our Savior and King: Oh, Come Let Us Adore Him.

Christmas day has passed, but the opportunity to give to the Hope Project is still available. There are many serving needs that can be met in the month of January. Check it out in the courtyard or on our web page at www.wlgbc.com.

It's almost 2022! Join our all-church Bible reading plan. Details are on our web page at www.wlgbc.com. You'll find a reading plan for each day, various ways to follow the plan, and helps and encouragement along the way. We can do this, WL!

LIFE APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Repentance was a significant part of the New Testament message (Matthew 3:1; 4:17; Acts 2:37-38; 20:21). What does repentance actually mean? What does it look like today? Why don't we hear about it much?
2. Why was John the Baptist (and later Jesus) so hard on the Pharisees and Sadducees? Do we have any of their tendencies today?
3. What does the baptism of Jesus tell us about Jesus? About the Trinity? About the role of the Spirit in Jesus' ministry?

What Kind of King?

Matthew 3

Kip Cone – Lead Pastor

December 26, 2021

Royal Herald: Make way for the king! (3:1)

Mounting Hope: The King is coming! (3:2-6)

Differing Expectations: What kind of King? (3:7-12)

Divine Confirmation: Will the real King please stand up? (3:13-17)

Now what? Living between the advents.
